
Welcome to the December edition of the Lyell Newsletter which brings you the latest news about the Lyell Collection of journals and books.

We continue to negotiate Transitional Read and Publish Open Access Agreements with consortia and institutions, if you are interested in talking to us about an agreement please contact Anne Davenport or Dawn Angel at subs@geolsoc.org.uk

Please try to renew your subscription in good time to enable your community of earth scientists to continue to benefit from the Geological Society content provided through the Lyell Collection.

Kind regards,

The Geological Society Publishing House

Seasons Greetings!

We would like to take this opportunity to wish you a Merry Christmas and best wishes for a Happy New Year.

Geological Society Read and Publish Transitional Agreement for Jisc HE Members

The Geological Society is pleased to confirm a two-year Read and Publish agreement is now available to both renewing and new Jisc HE members.

The agreement is from 1st January 2022 to December 31st 2023.

The Geological Society of London Read & Publish Agreement for the Society's Lyell Collection, includes unlimited read access to 14 journal and book sites and unlimited open access publishing for corresponding authors at participating institutions, on all article types under CC-BY licence terms in 9 hybrid journals and book series.

Order information: The pricing is quotation based and the calculation is detailed in the offer document on the subscription manager website. Please confirm all orders via the Licence subscriptions manager website to confirm the order and agree to the licence terms.

You can order direct from the Geological Society or from your chosen agent after confirming your order on the subscriptions manager website.

If you have any questions about your offer please contact us directly at subs@geolsoc.org.uk or contact our Accucoms representative RobTurner at rob@accucoms.com

If you are not a Jisc HE member and would like to explore an Open Access Read and Publish Agreement with GSL please contact us at subs@geolsoc.org.uk
